

Chemical Management System Policy

Anugraha Fashion Mill Pvt Ltd is committed to implement chemical management system by

- Comply to all applicable legal & other requirements like customer & brand requirements, community concerns, certification body specifications, product regulations etc., of chemical management system which impacts the environment, health and safety
- We ensure the protection of employees, communities and consumer health by managing compliance of hazardous chemical through our chemical management system like selection, storing, use of material, process & production control, waste management etc.,
- We ensure that the resources used and products produced will comply to MRSL and RSL standards which will have minimum adverse effect on human health and environment
- We are committed towards goal of zero discharge of hazardous chemicals throughout our product's life cycle
- We will achieve our standards and requirements through a dedicated chemical compliance team who shall focus on training of associates for chemical compliance, effective handling of chemicals by understanding the MSDS and technical data sheet, monitoring on the test results of our input and output, promote clean and green technology, product and process study for the right use and application, regular update of customer chemical compliance requirements etc.,

As a team we strive to continuously improve our commitment by establishing and evaluating achievable chemical management performance, objectives & targets to ensure continual improvement of chemical management system. We will communicate our chemical management system commitment to all the stakeholders

Managing Director

02.01.2017

